21 Speargrass Parade, Mount Low

This spectacular American-style home was built by Tribute Homes and features a classic look - but it's outfitted with all the modern features. Imagine cool evenings on your verandah swing while the kids play in the quiet street. Because this home was built "up and not out" there is heaps of room on the 747m2 fully fenced block to have a massive shed or Townsville's most epic pool. Changing circumstances within the family mean that even though this home was only finished in 2017, the vendors have moved down south and you can pick it up for far below the build cost.

If you are in the market for a unique family home then you don't need to look further than 21 Speargrass Parade, Mount Low. The open plan living area has plenty of room for your fa...
